Enclosed herewith are two identical diskettes and paper copy of a substitute Sequence Listing that is being submitted in the above-referenced application. Applicants state that the information recorded in computer readable form on the diskettes is identical to the enclosed written substitute Sequence Listing. The enclosed substitute Sequence Listing, which is furnished subsequently to the filing of the application, contains only sequences that were disclosed in the application as filed, or that were present in a publication that had been incorporated by reference into the application as originally filed. Thus, the replacement diskettes and written Sequence Listing contain no new matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Diana K. Sheiness, Ph.D.
